*First Jefferson
Unitarian
Universalist
Church*

We are a liberal religious community of diverse individuals. We nurture spiritual growth, encourage lifelong education, work for social justice, serve the larger community, and celebrate life's gifts together through meaningful worship. We welcome and support others in their expression of religious freedom.

GREAT SERVICES COMING YOUR WAY THIS MONTH!

November 5

"Revisioning Part II: A Story Worth Telling"

The Reverend Annie Foerster

Congregations in our denomination are often referred to as "The Sacred Community." What makes them sacred is the easy part. What makes them community is often more complicated, because each one has a story beyond its history, beyond its structure. But, complicated or not, nuanced or out there, it is a story worth discovering—and telling.

November 12

"Revisioning Part III: Return Again"

The Reverend Annie Foerster

For this series of services, we have been singing the song in the teal hymnal called Return Again. 'Return to who you are,' say the lyrics, not 'return to who you have been.' What does that even mean? I think it means making choices—choosing one of three options open to you for the future. I'll give you a tour of current operations, but the choices are up to you.

November 19

"A Matter of Public Trust"

The Reverend Marjorie Montgomery

Our heroes, Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry Thoreau taught us to be SELF RELIANT! YES!! But the world does not work very well with every man for himself. (Or every woman for herself.) So how may we live with these two contrasting points of view? T'aint easy, that's for sure.

Our guest minister today is the Rev. Marjorie Montgomery. She graduated from Wellesley College, Union Theological Seminary NYC and Perkins School of Theology, SMU. She has served UU churches in Belmont MA, Denton, Fort Worth (1980 to 1990) and Waco TX, Los Cruces NM, Tucson AZ and Nashville TN. She was RE Consultant for the Southwest UUA District for five years and retired in 2001. The League of Women Voters is her current volunteer interest. She and husband Duane have lived in Fort Worth TX. for 38 years. Their five children and 2 grandkids live nearby.

November 26

"Living the Question"

The Reverend Samuel Schaal

Most people live within the easy boundaries of the familiar. The poet Rilke suggests that to be truly alive, we must trust in the difficult. This is especially true for those of us (both individuals and congregations) facing an uncertain future.

Our Sunday Schedule

The Foerst Word from Annie Foerster

Call Me an Optimist

Way back in September, I preached a sermon that quoted Longfellow’s poem that said Into each life a little rain must fall. I said that when the day seems dark and dreary, we need to acknowledge our personal rainy-day feelings; not keep them bottled up inside. I turned an umbrella upside down at the doorway and asked you to record your rain thoughts and drop them into the umbrella as you left the sanctuary. It is time to share these thoughts—to dispel them, to help us realize we are all in this together and to begin working our way out into sunnier, brighter days.

The most mentioned concern was about attendance and membership—low attendance in general and a lack of growth. The second was leadership issues—so much work to be done and not enough people or energy to do it (one optimistic member, lamenting his or her own time and energy opportunities to help, said, “However, I am grateful for being a part of this community and my wonderful family”). Financial concerns were mentioned as well as the sudden and unexpected departure of Reverend Innis. The inability to know the future and suspected ‘hard conversations ahead’ were mentioned several times. And, finally, suggested at least once were, ‘potentially damaging gossip,’ ‘a low level of enthusiasm,’ ‘the aging of the congregation’ and ‘potential disconnections.’

There. We’ve gotten that out into the open. Now we can move forward. I’ve shared these concerns with the board and certain key committees. Now we all know what we have to work on. By the time you read this, I have already offered a service in which I suggest ways in which we may begin. And, I’ve asked for your thoughts in this regard. These I’ll share with you next month.

In the meantime, I encourage you to attend the meeting on December 2 that will allow you to join in the conversation of where the congregation goes next. I plan to be there. Call me an optimist, but I think you’ve got a lot going for you and at least one foot on a dry path toward the future. Put the umbrellas away and rub on the sun screen.

CARING & SHARING

On Friday, October 13, Kari Olson turned a normally “unlucky” day to an extraordinary “lucky day” by marrying Ross Stanley, the love of her life. They were married at a ranch on the mountainside in Larkspur, CO. Other former First Jefferson members Elise Miller, with husband Matt, and, Danuta and Lee Brown attended.

Jo Burnham’s brother Andy Johnson is out of the hospital and every good spirits! He is still battling cancer but it seems to be down hill. Jo and Andy want to thank all of you for your positive thoughts and prayers. Please keep them coming

Congratulations to Jacob Wennersten who will start work as a software engineer for Raytheon in Denver on November 13.

Cheri Husband has been sick for several weeks. Please keep her in your thoughts and prayers.

If you would like a pastoral note to be shared with the congregation, please write it in the notebook at the podium near the sanctuary entrance.

Caring and Sharing at First Jefferson is our network of cards and other support by members and friends. Please contact the church office if you need the prayers and care of the congregation, if you know of a need, or if you would like to help.

First Jefferson Unitarian Universalist Quilters

Tuesdays, 1pm, Jagers Parlor or Library

The First Jefferson Quilters meet weekly on Tuesdays from 1 to 3 p.m. Our mission is to make quilts and we are open to all who wish to pursue quilting with us. We have a long history here of producing quilts for fundraising, outside charities, and keeping people and buildings warm. Our current project is a Bookcase Quilt that will be raffled at the church service auction. Please consider joining us, regardless of your skills or experience. Contact Mary Kirwin 817-714-1796 for more information.

■ GALDR KINDRED

The Galdr Kindred is a group in the DFW area that practices Bioregional Heathenism. If the Galdr Kindred has a central principle that defines this group, it would be that we seek to understand and apply our shamanic heathenry to commune with the World Tree, Yggdrasil, in order to root ourselves into the dreaming intelligence of the Earth. We do not discriminate based on race, gender, sexual orientation, etc. We operate within the guidelines of the 7 Unitarian Universalist principles. We will not tolerate hate or abuse of any kind. We openly refute and will not congregate with groups that use hate in the name of the Gods. We support declaration 127.

The group will meet for classes from 1-3pm in the John Adams Room on the first Sunday of the month and for a business meeting third Saturdays from 12-2pm in the Library. Co-Organizers are Mathieu Thiem and Christian Torres.

■ CHILD & YOUTH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Our New Year in Religious Education Continues!

Registration is open. Please help us get to know you and your children by completing the registration form. See Mary West and Julia Sexton, the fabulous co-chairs of the Religious Education Council, for information.

The Nursery provides care for children through age 3 during the 9:30am-10:45 education time. At this point the Nursery also includes the younger elementary children, our Chalice Children, for free play after they attend the beginning of worship.

The curriculum for 2017-2018 focuses on world religions and the six sources of Unitarian Universalism. Some classes will explore stories from other faiths. Some classes will learn about different beliefs and even have a chance to visit houses of worship.

Preschool through Grade 1 will have Spirit Play in the Alexander Graham Bell room.

Grades 2-3 will learn about Holidays and Holy Days in the Sophia Lyon Fahs room.

Grades 5-8 will get to know the range of religious experience with Building Bridges in the John Adams room. Grades 9-12 will plan to visit places of worship with Neighboring Faiths curriculum. They will meet in the P.T. Barnum room.

About the Curriculum

Spirit Play class will hear stories and then may choose how to respond to that experience using craft and other materials or work directly with the stories. Spirit Play is a way of introducing children to sacred stories and providing a safe community for exploring those stories and their own big questions. Spirit Play is based on the Montessori method. The spiritual environment of the classroom includes a range of ages and developmental levels. Each congregation chooses the stories to be shared in the classroom. For more about Spirit Play, see <http://www.spirit-play.com/>

Holidays and Holy Days is based on the very popular curriculum by Charlene Brotman, a Unitarian Universalist religious educator. She says, "Holidays are the natural, age-old vehicle of religious socialization, setting time aside to remember a great person or event, give thanks for life's bounty: harvest, safety, freedom, warmth, or invoke light and gladness for overcoming darkness and danger, death and drought. Festivities tell a story which children absorb through experiences far more than through words."

Building Bridges is a chance to learn about world religions and the human experience from which they come. Mary K. Isaacs wrote and Jessica York edited Building Bridges as part of Tapestry of Faith curriculum from the Unitarian Universalist Association. For more information see, <http://www.uua.org/re/tapestry/youth/bridges>

Neighboring Faiths offers a thoughtful way to become familiar with world religions and visit houses of worship. The youth and advisors will learn the basic tenets of a particular faith before attending a service at a local congregation. This program was created by Unitarian Universalist educators Christine Reed and Patricia Hoertdoerfer. A preview of the book can be found on Google books.

Adventures in Religion— The Hero with a Thousand Faces

Library, Sundays, 9:30 a.m.

Adventures in Religion is a round-table discussion group about world religions. We are currently discussing Joseph Campbell's The Hero with a Thousand Faces, Princeton University Press; 2nd edition; (March 1, 1972). ISBN-10: 0691017840. ISBN-13: 978-0691017846. (Paperback).

This book uncovers truths disguised under figures of religion and mythology. Campbell explores Apollo, the Frog King of the fairy tale, Wotan, the Buddha, and others, and the relationship of their timeless symbols to those rediscovered in dream by depth psychology. He compares the psychological view with the words of such spiritual leaders as Moses, Jesus, Mohammed, Lao-tse, and the "Old Men" of the Australian tribes. From behind a thousand faces, the single hero emerges, archetype of all myth, and, through him, a statement of the basic truths by which man has lived throughout the millennia. Spectrum Chamber Music Society Announces The First Concert Pair of Their Thirty-Second Season

Spectrum Chamber Music Society, Fort Worth's oldest professional chamber music group, begins their 2017-18 season with a pair of concerts on Monday, October 16, 2017 and Monday, November 6, 2017. Featured are musicians of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra and friends performing popular music and hidden gems from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic and Contemporary periods.

The first downtown Fort Worth concert of the season will take place on Monday October 16 at 7:00pm in the Leonard Memorial Chapel of First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth, 800 W. 5th Street, and will feature beautiful, whimsical, stately, and dramatic music from the 17th through the 20th Century. Johann Sebastian Bach's Suite No. 1 for Unaccompanied Cello—the most famous of his cello suites (you will know why from the very first measure)—will be played in a transcription for viola by Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra violist Dmitry Kustanovich. Then the duo of FWSO clarinetist Stanislav Chernyshev and clarinetist Ann Hung will perform the short and quirky Sonata for Two Clarinets by 20th Century French composer Francis Poulenc. A Baroque trumpet ensemble will end the first part of the program with a series of brief fanfares by Baroque composers George Frederic Handel and Henry Purcell. Finally, the program will conclude with passion, sprightliness, serenity and drama, all wrapped up in the music of Felix Mendelssohn's String Quartet No. 4 in E minor, performed by FWSO musicians Jen Betz and Molly Baer, violins, Daniel Sigale, viola, and Allan Steele, FWSO Principal Cello. Admission is free as part of The Gift of Music series at First United Methodist Church.

The first eastside Fort Worth concert of the season will take place on Monday November 6 at 7:30pm at First Jefferson Unitarian Universalist Church, 1959 Sandy Lane, and will feature a pair of very different, yet related pieces composed for the warm combination of clarinet, viola, and piano, as well as one of noted 20th Century Russian composer Dmitri Shostakovich's most famous compositions. FWSO musicians Ivan Petruzzello, clarinet, and Daniel Sigale, viola, reunite with pianist Richard Shuster to perform two contrasting pieces for their instrument combination. First they will perform Hommage à R. Sch. (Homage to Robert Schumann), a tense and dramatic series of short fragments by 20th-Century Hungarian composer György Kurtág, followed by the cheery and lighthearted Märchenerzählungen (Fairy Tale Pictures), written by Romantic German composer Robert Schumann, who inspired Kurtág to write his composition. The second half of the program will be devoted to the haunting and emotionally charged Piano Trio No. 2 in E minor by Dmitri Shostakovich, performed by FWSO musicians Swang Lin, violin, Allan Steele, cello, and Shields-Collins Bray, piano.

Now in their 32nd season, the Spectrum Chamber Music Society is devoted to sharing diverse exciting chamber music performances with the local community of Fort Worth and neighboring communities. Their annual series of six unique concert programs take place at two local churches, First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth and First Jefferson Unitarian Universalist Church. The group features musicians of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra, joined by musicians from all over North Texas and beyond.

HOSTED AT FIRST JEFFERSON

PFLAG

1st Thursday of each month, 7:00 pm
PFLAG provides opportunity for dialogue about sexual orientation, and acts to create a society that is healthy and respectful of human diversity. More info at www.pflagfortworth.org or contact Mark & Lisa Daly mark.daly@tx.rr.com

Trans-Cendence

First & Third Tuesdays, 7pm, Coleman Hall

Trans-Cendence works to support transgender and gender diverse people of all ages and sexual orientations. They also support the spouses, partners, parents, friends and allies of gender diverse people and are a resource for those who work closely with transgender people like counselors, educators, law enforcement, etc.

Meetings begin at 7:00 p.m. with a whole group meeting. This usually has about 50 people at it. At meetings there is a discussion topic or a special speaker. Then at about 8pm they split into groups. One group remains in the larger group area. This group is usually the gender diverse people. Another group splits off comprised of youth and young adults. The last group is the SOFFA (significant others, family, friends, and allies) and this group talks about issues related to transition for the SOFFAs themselves.

Ryanwood Neighborhood Association

Meets six times a year at the First Jefferson. For details go to Ryanwood's website www.ryanwoodna.org or contact President Glenn Pense president@ryanwoodna.org.
